On behalf of the Massachusetts AFL-CIO and together with the scholarship committee, we would like to dedicate this year's 50th Annual Scholarship program to the memory of Fr. Edward Boyle (Labor Guild) and Jay E. Porter (AFT-MA). Both men were extremely dedicated to the labor movement and enjoyed tremendously participating in the scholarship program each year. They will both be sorely missed.

In Solidarity,

Robert J. Haynes
President

PROCEDURE

Date of exam ... February 6, 2008

Participation in the 2008 scholarship program of the Massachusetts AFL-CIO is voluntary. Students desiring to take the examination should apply to their Guidance Office, Social Studies Teacher, or Principal by December 21, 2007. The school will then forward to the Massachusetts AFL-CIO, the number of senior students desiring to take the examination no later than January 13, 2008.

All participating schools will receive a master copy of the Labor History Study Guide and application to keep in the guidance department. Additional study guides and applications may be accessed/downloaded through our website at www.massaficio.org. The exam and instruction sheet for supervising teachers will follow in January. Each exam should be complete and bear the signature of the Principal, Department Head, or Examination Coordinator, and returned to the Massachusetts AFL-CIO by February 8, 2008.

- Basis of awards: a competitive examination dealing with organized labor in America.
- Scope of examination: history and structure of the labor movement in America, legislation affecting American workers, child labor laws, minimum wages, civil rights, safety in the workplace, old age and health insurance, unemployment compensation, worker's compensation and past and current labor events.
- All high school seniors going onto some form of higher education are eligible for the Massachusetts AFL-CIO Scholarships. Students with union affiliation should contact their local union for eligibility requirements.
- Students that comply with the local union guidelines and rate highest on the exam shall be judged the winner of the local award. Students sponsored by a local union are eligible to receive no more than two scholarships.
- The winner of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Scholarship is encouraged to read his/her essay at the scholarship reception in May.
