

Western Massachusetts Jobs With Justice presents

Voices of Working People's History

a program of dramatic readings and lots of songs, with emphasis on Western Mass. voices, telling the origin story of May Day as International Workers' Day in Chicago with an inspiring introduction to US labor history up to present-day voices of workers rising up
~ inspired by Howard Zinn ~

Friday, May 4, 2018

7:00-9:00pm {doors open 6:30}

Holyoke Heritage State Park Visitors Center
221 Appleton St, Holyoke

Space is limited! Reserve seats in advance at voices-of-working-peoples-history-2018.

The Voices of:

W.E.B. Du Bois
Knights of Labor
Black Convict Laborer
Peter McGuire
Albert Parsons
Dyer Lum
August Spies
Holyoke Transcript Reporter
Edward Bellamy
Tom Mooney
Industrial Workers of the World
Big Bill Haywood
Lucy Parsons
Eugene Debs
Mother Jones
Elizabeth Gurley Flynn
Emma Goldman
Luisa Capetillo
Ludlow Mills Striker
Lawrence Mass. Strikers
Blair Mountain Miner
Frances Perkins
Anna Sullivan
Paul Robeson
George Markham

Springfield African American Plaintiffs
{Octagon Lounge Incident}
Bayard Rustin
Cesar Chavez
Sterling Radiator Striker
Jobs With Justice Founders
Teachers, Nurses, Others in the Current Struggles

Readers & Performers:

Ben Grosscup
Bob Williams
Charlie Lotspeich
Chris Rohmann
Ginetta Candelario
Inari Barrett
Irene Thornton
Jarice Hanson
Lynn Waldron
Orlando Isaza
The Raging Grannies
Reynolds Winslow
Robyn Sutton-Fernández
Tom Neilson
Director: Irene Thornton
Musical Director: Tom Neilson

Dedicated to our brothers and sisters whom we lost since last May Day:

Isaac Ben-Ezra, Jafet Robles, John William Bennett, Michael Lindberg, Peter Kocot, Roberta Mulcahy SSJ, Ruth Hooke, Sarah Kemble.

Donate to Jobs With Justice in honor of May Day: Donations are tax deductible and used in your region of Mass.
Donate at support-massachusetts-jobs-with-justice or send a check to CLEAR, 375 Centre St., Boston MA 02130.