

Internal Organizing in a Post-Janus World

Thursday, July 26
Dinner 5:30, Program 6 - 9

The Supreme Court's decision in the Janus vs. AFSCME case just made it easier for wealthy special interests to rig the economy against working people. In a post-Janus world, public sector unions are under attack and the private sector may not be far behind.

Training participants will learn important member engagement skills to navigate this new landscape and develop a strategic next step for their union.

Open to all union members including leaders, staff, stewards, activists & building reps from the public or private sector.

Sponsors: Merrimack Valley Labor Council, Massachusetts AFL-CIO and UMass Lowell Labor Education Program
