

America Needs Union Jobs

Join UMass Lowell unions for the "Working People's Day of Action"

Monday, February 26, 2018

12:00 – 1:00 PM Alumni

Hall, North Campus

Come learn how the Janus case threatens our standard of living. Meet with other union members, learn, and strategize together.

On February 26th, thousands of working people across Massachusetts will join a national day of action as we speak out for good, union jobs. The Working People's Day of Action coincides with the Supreme Court hearings on the Janus vs. AFSCME case. That case is part of a well-funded campaign by the wealthy special interests to divide us from our co-workers – and to limit the power in numbers we have together in a union.

In Massachusetts we are joining with sisters and brothers across the country to say, we will fight to protect the freedom of working people to join unions for a better life!

"In our glorious fight for civil rights, we must guard against being fooled by false slogans, such as 'right-to-work.' It provides no 'rights' and no 'works.' Its purpose is to destroy labor unions and the freedom of collective bargaining... We demand this fraud be stopped." – Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., 1961

List of sponsors in-forma-tion

Graduate Employee Organization (GEO)

For more information, contact your union leadership or susan_winning@uml.edu

